

We as International Gutenberg Society in Mainz e.V. are an association for the study of the history and the development of the printing as well as the typography and font-oriented media. The company was founded on June 23, 1901 in Mainz and is one of the most traditional scientific societies in Mainz. The Gutenberg Society, together with the city of Mainz and, in turn, with the printing city of Leipzig, awards the € 10,000 Gutenberg Prize for outstanding artistic, technical or scientific achievement in the field of printing. In addition to promoting research in the printing and book industry, it provides conceptual and material support for the Gutenberg Museum Mainz. Its membership is around 800 members in 31 countries of the world (as of 2017). The president is the Lord Mayor of Mainz.
